

The Swine and Poultry Infectious Diseases Research Centre or CRIPA, is a strategic cluster of the province of Quebec, financed by the Mission : Improve the control of pathogens that affect the pig and poultry industries, having an economic impact and on the health of populations.

STRATEGIC CLUSTER

GRADUATION RATE

Graduate placement sectors

CONTACT US

(450) 773-8521, ext. 0050

3200, Sicotte Street
Saint-Hyacinthe, J2S 2M2

cripa@medvet.umontreal.ca

www.cripa.center

SCHOLARSHIPS & PRIZES

FOR STUDENTS RESEARCHERS

ADVANTAGES

- Be part of a scientific network that fights against infectious diseases (+200 research projects)
- Actively contribute to the challenges of a proactive and moving industry
- Have support to shine in newspapers and magazines
- Take free trainings
- Participate in student conferences promoted in our symposiums
- Take advantage of internship and career opportunities
- Use high-tech equipment

LIST OF SCHOLARSHIPS

SCHOLARSHIPS

- Scholarship Together for the next generation
- International internship
- MITACS international internship
- Maternity leave scholarship

COMMUNICATIONS SCHOLARSHIPS & PRIZES

- Allowance for CRIPA's research outreach
- Trainings and networking of National Advancing Women Conference in Agriculture
- Trainings for highly qualified personnel (postdoc)
- Knowledge transfer contest
- Popularize scientific article contest
- Best scientific presentations contest

FIND OUT MORE

For more details on the activities and how to register, scan the QR code.

To consult MSc, PhD and Postdoctoral career opportunities, scan the QR code.

